

“IN THE MIDDLE OF THE CONFLICT”-LIVE ACTION ROLE-PLAYING GAME

OULU 13.-14.6.2014

“In the Middle of the Conflict” is overnight role-playing game which is developed by Red Cross. Players are set in the position of a refugee. They have to escape war and walk through situations and issues which refugees will encounter on their path. The game will introduce the players to the rules of war, victim’s right to get help and also to the missions of the Red Cross to help the refugees.

If you have sometimes thought what the refugees must endure while fleeing their homes, now you have the chance to get a clue. Anyone, between 15-29 years, can apply to be a player. Entry fee for the game is 30 €, including food and bunking.

Till 23.5, you can sign up here <http://rednet.punainenristi.fi/node/22876>

Responsibles for arranging the game are Oulun kaupungin Nuorisopalvelut and Red Cross Oulu District.

More information: Janne Moilanen p. 040 701 5016 / janne.moilanen@redcross.fi