

Condom skills test

There can be more than one right answer

1. The most common sexually transmitted disease in Finland is

- ☐ HIV
- ☐ Gonorrhoea
- ☐ Chlamydia

2. You can avoid contracting a sexually transmitted disease

- ☐ with birth control pills
- ☐ by using a condom
- ☐ with celibacy, meaning refraining from sexual interaction

3. A sexually transmitted disease can be symptomless

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

4. It is important to protect yourself no matter what your sexual orientation is

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

5. Sexually transmitted diseases can be transmitted through oral sex

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

6. Being HIV positive means that a person has

- ☐ AIDS
- ☐ the HI virus
- ☐ resistance against the HI virus

7. Oral herpes can infect the genitals

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

8. You should be tested for sexually transmitted diseases if

- ☐ you have had unprotected sex
- ☐ the condom breaks during intercourse
- ☐ you want to check whether you have a sexually transmitted disease

9. By consenting to oral sex you are also consenting to intercourse

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

10. Consent can be deduced from the fact that the other person is not physically resisting the sexual act

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no

Consent and protection are easy to carry.

Finnish Red Cross 